Subject: Abigail´s Updates November 2025 - 8 prayer points to share

Hi friends,

I can hardly believe it's already November! This is my last month of maternity leave before I head back to work with OM Norway in December.

We've put together a little fun prayer tool with eight ways you can be praying for us this month, you'll find it attached...

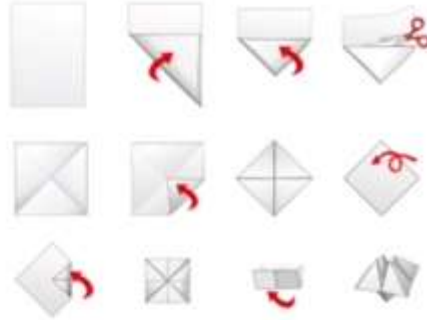

and here´s a little video greeting... <https://www.facebook.com/share/r/1BSy282ELa/>

Thank you so much for standing with us and praying through each season. It really means a lot. We'd also love to hear how you're doing and how we can be praying for you as winter settles in.

With love,

Abigail, Thomas and the little ones
